Piano

The first system of musical notation for the piano arrangement. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The time signature is 4/4. The treble staff begins with a series of chords and single notes, including a sharp sign on the second line. The bass staff features a simple rhythmic accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

The second system of musical notation, continuing the piano arrangement. It follows the same two-staff format as the first system, with treble and bass clefs. The melody in the treble staff continues with various note values and rests.

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff shows a change in the melody, and the bass staff continues its accompaniment. A double bar line is present at the end of the system.

The fourth system of musical notation, which includes the lyrics. The treble staff has lyrics written below it: "Ne-ver knew I could feel like this" and "Like I've ne-ver seen the". The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.
